Trump Pulls U.S. Out of World Health Organization, Slaps Penalties on China Over Hong Kong Action

-The Washington Times

"President Trump announced Friday the U.S. is terminating its relationship with the World Health Organization over its handling of the coronavirus crisis," Tom Howell Jr. and Dave Boyer report. The President also took action on China for misleading the world about the virus, as well as for its security crackdown on Hong Kong.

Coronavirus Task Force Chief Mike Pence: You Did It, America

-Washington Examiner

Early on, experts warned President Trump that without social distancing, the COVID-19 death toll could reach as high as 2.2 million. But with it, the range would drop to 100,000 to 240,000. "Today, as many states begin to ease rules near the Memorial Day holiday week turning point that [Vice President Mike Pence] predicted, the death toll, tragic as it is, stands at the lowest level on that chart," Paul Bedard writes.

It's Time To Stop Pretending Twitter Is Neutral

-The Federalist

“By stepping in to flag Trump’s tweet with a warning label and a link so users can ‘get the facts’ about mail-in ballots (which ironically links to a CNN article by Chris Cillizza), Twitter abandoned any claim it had to being a neutral facilitator,” John Daniel Davidson writes.
